RE: Notice of Complaint, SC-2610209

Dear Mr. Hall:

We received sworn complaint SC-2610209 on October 24, 2006. The complaint meets the technical form requirements for a complaint filed with the Texas Ethics Commission, and the executive director has determined that the Ethics Commission has jurisdiction over the violation of law alleged in the sworn complaint.

The complaint alleges that you made political contributions and political expenditures in violation of section 253.094 of the Election Code. The complaint also alleges that you published political advertising that did not contain the required political advertising disclosure statement in violation of section 255.001 of the Election Code. The complaint also alleges that you spent or authorized the spending of public funds for political advertising in violation of section 255.003 of the Election Code. The complaint further alleges that you knowingly used or authorized the use of an internal mail system for the distribution of political advertising in violation of section 255.0031 of the Election Code.

With this notice, I have included a copy of the sworn complaint, the Ethics Commission's sworn complaint rules, a Statement of Respondent's Rights, and a copy of the relevant statutes of the Election Code. More information about the complaint process is available on the Ethics Commission's website at www.ethics.state.tx.us.

If you have any information relevant to the complaint, please provide it at this time. Your response must be in writing and under oath. We have enclosed an affidavit form that you may wish to use for your response. Your response must include any challenge you seek to raise to the Ethics Commission's jurisdiction. In addition, in your response you may acknowledge the occurrence or commission of the violation, or deny the allegations and provide evidence supporting that denial.

Dear Ms. Alber:

We received sworn complaint SC-2610209 on October 24, 2006. The complaint meets the technical form requirements for a complaint filed with the Texas Ethics Commission, and the executive director has determined that the Ethics Commission has jurisdiction over the violation of law alleged in the sworn complaint.

The complaint alleges that you made political contributions and political expenditures in violation of section 253.094 of the Election Code. The complaint also alleges that you published political advertising that did not contain the required political advertising disclosure statement in violation of section 255.001 of the Election Code. The complaint also alleges that you spent or authorized the spending of public funds for political advertising in violation of section 255.003 of the Election Code. The complaint further alleges that you knowingly used or authorized the use of an internal mail system for the distribution of political advertising in violation of section 255.0031 of the Election Code.

With this notice, I have included a copy of the sworn complaint, the Ethics Commission's sworn complaint rules, a Statement of Respondent's Rights, and a copy of the relevant statutes of the Election Code. More information about the complaint process is available on the Ethics Commission's website at www.ethics.state.tx.us.

If you have any information relevant to the complaint, please provide it at this time. Your response must be in writing and under oath. We have enclosed an affidavit form that you may wish to use for your response. Your response must include any challenge you seek to raise to the Ethics Commission's jurisdiction. In addition, in your response you may acknowledge the occurrence or commission of the violation, or deny the allegations and provide evidence supporting that denial.
